CITIZEN’S INTERIM
Two citizens came forward.
Spencer Morgan, former MCC Associated Student Government Leader, came forward to speak about the newly formed Conference of Arizona Student Leaders, an Arizona Students’ Association. He thanked the Board and Chancellor and all others who provided support for the conference held September 26 in Flagstaff, Arizona. He indicated that 150 students from 120 educational institutions had attended and that the highlight and crown jewel had been the All Arizona Student Summit. Mr. Morgan read a resolution which had been passed and was meant to strengthen the state-wide student voice (Copy of resolution included with these minutes.)

A second citizen by the name of Stephen Montoya came forward on behalf of Rio employee, Benjamin Hardy. Mr. Montoya, an attorney, had been hired to represent Mr. Hardy on his dismissal as an employee of Rio Salado College. He stated that Mr. Hardy had been an employee for eight years and had made a very serious mistake in his employment. It had been reported that he had a small amount of marijuana in his car and when his car was searched by Tempe Police Department it was discovered that he had approximately 13 grams in his car even though he had the marijuana in his car, he had not smoked any marijuana. He was arrested and he plead guilty to the charges. He was given a drug test and in fact as he tried to explain to the college authorities and to the Tempe police department that even though he had the marijuana in his car, and he accepted responsibility for that, he had not smoked any marijuana. The test from the task drug detection lab came back negative for every drug which included amphetamines, cocaine, opiates and NTHC, a component of marijuana. Mr. Hardy has worked for the college eight years. He made a mistake. He doesn’t pretend that it wasn’t a very serious one. He doesn’t have a record of discipline. He admits he should be disciplined for the mistake we are talking about tonight. He just is asking the Board to exercise its discretion to not to terminate his employment with the college. As the Board knows, it is within their discretion to impose a lesser penalty and to give this man a second chance. Mr. Montoya stated he believed everyone is entitled to a second chance and he has never had a first chance, and he believed that if he were to be given a second chance, he would validate their expression of faith in him. He has never done anything wrong before. Lord knows, the evidence is overwhelming that he would never make this mistake again. Mr. Montoya said Mr. Hardy's supervisor, Arnold Gross, was present this evening and had him stand. Mr. Montoya said he interviewed Mr. Gross on the telephone yesterday, who told him Mr. Hardy is one of the hardest working custodians he has. He works his hide off literally for the college every day, he’s an extremely hard worker, that he's extremely contrite, and that he would never make this mistake again. There is no evidence that he was using any type of illicit drug on campus or off campus.
When he was tested, he came out clean. He accepts responsibility and knows he should be punished for this. The Board was asked to exercise their discretion to mitigate the punishment. They suggested a 90-day suspension without pay. Mr. Hardy has already been on a five month administrative leave. Perhaps it could be made a five month unpaid suspension. He could also be put on probation for two years or a last chance agreement with immediate termination if found to be in violation of the District’s rules in that two year probationary period. During that two year probationary period he would be subject to random drug testing at his own expense even though he has already been drug tested and he has come out clean. This young man made a mistake and was asking and begging the Board to give him a second chance. Mr. Montoya indicated he was old enough to know that a second chance can be transformative to the person who gets but also to other individuals because sometimes if you have been shown mercy, you will display mercy to others. Tonight if you have mercy on this young man, you will set an example that he will follow and he will have mercy on others in the course of his life. We are not asking that he not to be punished as we have already indicated. I have already made clear that he would accept non-trivial, very severe punishment, a five month suspension without pay, probation, termination if he ever violates the rules again, random drug testing at his own expense, or other punishment that your imagination can devise short of termination. The economy is tough out there as you know.

Governing Board Member Debra Pearson asked Mr. Hardy what his primary first language was, to which Mr. Hardy responded English. Mrs. Pearson responded that there was no reason why he couldn’t have understood the questions that were asked of him and why he lied. Mr. Hardy responded that some of it was true and Mr. Montoya explained that there were some things in his background that were relevant. He has a learning disability. He doesn’t have any education. Mrs. Pearson asked if he had understood the questions the police had asked him about what he had in his possession and if it was his or not. Mr. Hardy responded yes and that he stated they were his to protect his girlfriend from punishment. He knew it was in his possession from the night before. It was in his car and this violated the law and he took the punishment for that.

Governing Board Member Debra Pearson indicated she was proud to announce that a former SPPF student, Albert Ojeda, had been invited to attend a White House Summit and would be speaking about his experiences at Estrella Mountain Community College. She also announced that 2010-11 SPPF students were in attendance this evening and asked that they be acknowledged as they were in training to be our future leaders. She expressed appreciation to the Faculty Association for the outstanding, commendable presentation made last Tuesday evening at the strategic conversation. She asked them for forgiveness for the way they were treated, ignored, and insulted over the last two years and they have shown incredible integrity to do what is right. If the Board would only have asked the right questions a couple of years ago.

Governing Board President Randolph Lumm remarked that he has attended Univision Radio’s 40 Hispanic Leaders Under 40 Awards Luncheon on September 22. Two employees, Sandra Mendoza from GWC and Lily Antonini from MCTV, were acknowledged for their accomplishments, He also attended the Hispanic Leadership Forum Dinner during which a $5,000 check was presented to EMC. He also thanked the Workforce Development team who provided information at the recent work study session on the challenges of providing training for new jobs in our community.

Chancellor Glasper announced that Dr. Anna Solley, President of Phoenix College had recently been honored with the Victoria Foundation first annual Arizona Higher Education Award. This award named in honor of Dr. Loui Olivas was presented to Dr. Solley for her efforts in championing the recruiting and degree completion of Latino students.

The Chancellor then provided the following update the 21st Century Maricopa Initiative:

“Maricopa administration, faculty, and staff have continued to work collaboratively and diligently to review the recommendations and to plan the implementation of strategies. About 350 people are participating in the work teams to review the recommendations and plan for implementation. Thank you to all who have dedicated so much time and energy to this initiative in addition to their regular jobs. As of 9/28/10, the work teams have completed 75% of the planning phase and 25% of the implementation phase. A total of 59 efficiency and effectiveness reviews have been brought to the Board between January and September. 9 additional reviews are submitted today, 3 of those will be presented tonight and the remaining reviews are summarized in a written report that I've provided to the Board. The 3 items that will be presented are

- Human Resources governance
- Outsourcing of facilities maintenance
- Information technology staffing

Our findings and potential savings have been presented to the Governing Board. After thorough review of each of the recommendations, we have concluded that the savings as estimated and recommended by the consultants do not exist and/or if implemented as suggested may not be in the best interest of the district. Even though in many cases we did not find the savings as indicated by the consultants, we have found ways to become more efficient and effective moving forward.”

Dr. Josh Mackey, Acting Interim Vice Chancellor for HR, made a presentation on the Human Resources Governance Structure. Vice Chancellor for Business Services Debra Thompson provided an analysis of outsourcing costs in comparison to greater use of temporaries and made the recommendation that the District continue the use of district personnel at a projected rate of 60% board approved employees and 40% temporary employees. Lastly, Vice Chancellor of Information Technology George Kahkedjian provided information on the staffing levels for the Information Technology Division. The information he provided was based on benchmarking against peers and an inventory of applications and services. The conclusion had been reached that MCCCD costs and staffing levels were lower than peers and there would be further analysis of application and services to identify potential savings.

Mrs. Pearson remarked that the institution should have a 1-5-10 year plan projection so that we have a further looking scope rather than a reactionary system. Mr. Walker expressed appreciation for the work that has been done and would encourage IT to look at different standards by other institutions not spoken to. The Chancellor responded that what we are trying to stress in comparing ourselves to peers is to address what the consultant compared us to. What we are trying to do is compare ourselves to comparable institutions. We now have grasp of IT costs for this system. What type of IT should we form in this system so that we have a baseline as we become more effective and efficient? Come back with both student services and IT costs and centralize some of those costs. Now we can come back with lower costs. Our work is not done. As we disband our work teams, we will implement in agreement with our Board.

In closing, the Chancellor thanked the Vice Chancellors, the college presidents, and all of the members of the work teams for their thorough review of all the 21st Century Maricopa items.

STUDENT LIFE REPORTS

The following employees and students from Scottsdale Community College came forward to provide updates on their accomplishments thus far this school year:

Jorge Rodriguez, Interim Student Life Director, introduced a video regarding Leadershape activities that had taken place over the summer.

Joseph Juliano, SCC Student, was the spokesperson for Leadershape. He spoke about how Leadershape had affected everyone as they learned more about themselves and others, as well as how to develop leadership skills. He commented that Leadershape was a factor in helping community colleges stand out.

Kendra Rightsell, SCC Student, acknowledged the approximate 20 students present this evening who were participating in the Student Life Group at Scottsdale. She mentioned that many were new to the group and others were returning students. She thanked members of the Board and their college president for having Student Life Offices at each campus.

Faculty Report

Faculty Executive Council President Harold Cranswick provided the following comments:

“President Lumm, members of the Governing Board, Chancellor Glasper, members of CEC, and guests.

First and foremost, the Faculty Association wanted to express our appreciation to all of you who were able to attend the Strategic Conversation sponsored by the Faculty Association last Tuesday. For those of you who were unable to attend the conversation focused on Faculty Involvement in Policy Governance. The first half covered a little background on the three pillars of the professoriate -- academic freedom, peer review and shared governance and was followed by further explanation of the levels of faculty involvement. This presentation was followed by a breakout session during which the groups were asked to evaluate different scenarios and determine the level of faculty involvement that described the scenario. The point of the exercise was to encourage everyone to consider the appropriate circumstances and desirability of faculty involvement under a Policy Governance framework.

The audience was encouraged to consider a partnership level of involvement as the default position for shared governance. Having faculty participate at the level of a partnership was the starting point for the second half of the presentation that focused on Interest Based Negotiation. Using IBN, the Faculty and Board Meet and Confer Teams approach the process from the standpoint of working together to find resolutions to important issues facing the District instead of taking an adversarial approach as was done in the past. The IBN approach is critically different from the past because it focuses on issues rather than demands; it requires the participants to work together to gather data, to brainstorm ideas and to discuss possible solutions rather than simply respond to demands. Ultimately, IBN provides a better chance of finding workable solutions to the most pressing issues facing our District rather than leaving them to languish on the bargaining table.

To date, Eddie and I have made this presentation to the faculty at eight of the colleges, to CEC and to you. Many people have commented on these ideas and their applicability not just to faculty but to the culture of MCCD in general. In fact, we have received nothing but positive feedback so far and we are now at a point where we are planning for the future. We have some ideas but the members of FEC would like to invite your comments with respect to what you might see as the next steps in this effort to work together on the important issues facing the District.”

Employee Group Reports

Michael Powell, President of the Adjunct Faculty Association, provided the following report:

“This President Lumm, Governing Board members, Chancellor Glasper, members of the CEC, and District staff. This report is an update on Adjunct Faculty Association activities.

First, I want to publically thank Vice Chancellor Phil Randolph and the various staff members he brought together for working with AFA representatives to examine the question “When is an Adjunct an Employee?” The efforts to review logistical, operational, ethical, and legal questions concerning adjuncts when they are seen as faculty who happen to work part-time is greatly appreciated. We are encouraged that we are moving beyond the current view that adjuncts are part-time employees who happen to teach. For further information please refer to the Adjunct Faculty Association webpage.

The Adjunct Faculty Association in conjunction with MCLI will be offering a workshop on Saturday, November 6 from Noon – 5 p.m. titled Globalization: the Impact on Teaching and Learning at the Community College. This will be a different type of program. We will have a speaker give an opening address framing the issues, then break into three tabletop facilitated sessions. The first session will examine personal perspectives that faculty have of globalization. The second session will be the impact on teaching globalization has had. The third session will look at learning outcomes across disciplines for students. Each tabletop will have a facilitator that will guide each 45 minute session with 3-4 questions. The conversation will be recorded, with insights and conclusions reached throughout the afternoon. After the workshop is complete a report will be produced of the findings and possible recommendations the workshop generated and will be distributed to all faculty members across the District for use accordingly. We will also provide the report to Executive Leadership at all 10 Colleges and the District. I am a firm believer in distributing knowledge and this will be an experiment in looking how conferences and workshops can be more productive in getting information to those that are unable to attend. Whatever lessons we learn we will apply at our annual Spring Conference.

Over the next 60 days we will be generating a few 3-5 question surveys for adjuncts to respond to in order to gauge adjunct interest and views in District issues and teaching and learning issues. We will utilize those findings to better fulfill our service purposes on behalf of adjunct faculty.
Finally, we will also be looking at Adjunct Faculty Professional Growth funds. Currently the District is providing approximately $132,000 this fiscal year. We are working with MCLI to tweak the process to encourage active use of the funds. I will also be encouraging how we can get the information one person learned from these endeavors to be accessed by all adjuncts.

The AFA Board appreciates the opportunity to contribute to the educational and governance objectives of the District. On behalf of the AFA and the nearly 6,000 adjunct faculty we support, thank you for your support. “

Cheryl Caldwell, President of the M&O Crafts Employee Group, provided the following remarks:

"President Lumm, Members of the Board, Chancellor Glasper, Members of the CEC, and others present.

I would like to take this time to introduce myself. My name is Cheryl Caldwell and I am the incoming president for the M&O Employee Group. I am a groundskeeper and work at MCC-RM. This is Cynthia Scott and she is our new secretary. Cindy is a custodian and works at SCC. Carl Blevins is our vice-president and he is a groundskeeper at Gateway.

It is the charge of the M&O executive council to support and represent all M&O employees. With that as our main goal, it is also our charge to require "service excellence" from each and every one who is a board-approved employee of MCCCD. We cannot overemphasize the importance of having M&O personnel on each campus dedicated to its success.

Student success is not just about teaching and learning. It is about having a welcoming campus that is neat and clean. It is about being "first-responders" when students arrive to provide directions or welcome-back smiles, laughs, and encouragement. It is about doing 110% to get the job done.

Thank you for your time and we look for to working with you in the near future."

Vice Chancellor Dr. Steve Helfgot, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Maricopa Community Colleges Foundation, provided information pertaining to the 2011 Heroes of Education Tribute Dinner kick-off reception to be held October 6, 2010 at 5:30 p.m. at Morton’s Steakhouse in Phoenix. The 2011 Heroes of Education
Honoree, Ronnie Lopez, Chairman of Phoenix International Consultants, Inc. would be introduced to everyone. Mr. Lopez has expressed that it is his goal to surpass the $1 million mark for scholarships given through the Maricopa Community Colleges Foundation.

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation’s postsecondary success strategy has an ambitious national goal of doubling the number of low-income young adults who earn postsecondary degree or certificates with value in the marketplace by the time they reach age 26. The CLIP Program is one of the success strategies. Overall it is a four-year $20 million project funded by the Gates Foundation and managed by the National League of Cities. During the past 9 months MCC has worked hard with the Mesa
Public Schools and city offices to conduct assessment of current strengths and weaknesses of educational delivery system, use of theory of change to design a process and strategies to double postsecondary certificate and degree completion rates for under-served youths in Mesa. It was announced on Monday that Mesa had been one of the four cities selected for this award. MOTION NO. 9738
Board Member Debra Pearson moved for approval of the Consent Agenda as amended with the request to remove the name of Benjamin Hardy from Action Item V.C.4 (HR Separations) on the Consent MOTION: Agenda. Board Member Don Campbell seconded. Motion approved 4-0 (Vacancy in District 1).

Discussion: Governing Board Member Debra Pearson commented that a couple of years ago she warned there was going to come a time when we would be asked to forgive and that the Board could not hold themselves to a different standard than they asked of others. The Board would be forced to make a difficult decision based on standards they were unable or incapable of holding themselves to. The Board is being begged for forgiveness and it needs to be applied equally. Need to be consistent to standards. We have been asked to forgive again, but not one of our own but someone who has come before us asking for the same privilege we gave to ourselves. She therefore made the motion that the Board offer the same opportunity for forgiveness and ask that this employee use this experience as an educational experience to be shared with our students for the mistake that he has made and that he be required to teach and speak about his impetuousness and that he teach and talk to students about making decisions and be allowed to show his remorse by speaking and teaching about the consequences of his actions and making bad decisions.

General Counsel Lee Combs provided clarification that at this point we were asking for the item to be removed from the consent item and that it be considered after the approval of the Consent Agenda and then this be considered as to what sanctions would be considered. asked for clarification about changing the punishment. Mrs. Pearson requested that the item be removed from the Consent Agenda and considered separately at tonight’s meeting. Mr. Combs indicated that the different sanctions could be discussed. Mrs. Pearson indicated that she would be asking for last chance for Mr. Hardy, however, there would be a requirement for additional speaking or educational speaking or student teaching as to poor decision making just as we offered one of our own after breaking law.

Mr. Lumm asked if Mrs. Pearson was making a motion for last chance, educational speaking or student teaching as to poor decision making. Mrs. Pearson responded: Last chance, to speak and demonstrate poor choices. Board President Randolph Lumm remarked that bringing drugs on campus was very serious and is very concerned about that and he takes this very seriously since he might have been working under the influence. Mrs. Pearson said he had not been smoking and Mr. Lumm remarked that it might have been on that day. Board Member Jerry Walker commented he agreed with Mrs. Pearson that we should show some leniency and make sure that there were consequences associated with illegal drugs and command substantial penalty. In lieu of termination, he recommended at least a five months’ suspension without pay.
C.4. CONSIDERATION OF THE SEPARATION OF BENJAMIN HARDY - approve the termination of Benjamin Hardy from Rio Salado College.

Mr. Combs advised that as a result of this name being removed from the Action Item V.C.4 on the Consent Agenda, it would be a separate active item requiring action.

Mrs. Pearson had moved that the name of Benjamin Hardy be removed from the action item and that the Board needed to be consistent and not contradict our past actions of one of our own and breaking the law and not hold others to a different standard. Give that forgiveness and that the Board offer a last chance opportunity with drug testing be required at employee’s expense every two months because it stays in your system two months. Mrs. Pearson says that if the Board did not suspend one of its own or anything of that nature, the Board needed to be very careful that when people come before them, it is very inappropriate to sit there and place any other type of judgment, penalties or motions to create any other type of different standard. We need to connect the behaviors. Mr. Lumm indicated that if you bring drugs on campus and you are an employee, you are fired. That is a standard. Mrs. Pearson moved that Benjamin Hardy be given a last chance and if he found guilty of any other offense that he be immediately terminated, and be required to pay for own drug testing (on a weekly basis) as long as he remains employed and five months’ suspension without pay. Board Member Jerry Walker seconded. Clarification from Board Chair Randolph Lumm to Board Assistant Gloria Smith: Weekly testing for first six months and then monthly for last six months at employee’s own expense and then discontinue. Five months’ unpaid suspension beginning immediately.

Mr. Combs asked the Board wished to hear from the organization’s attorney, Mr. Richard Galvan. Mr. Galvan commented that Mr. Montoya’s comments were characterized more about what he didn’t tell the Board about this case than what he did tell them about this case. Mr. Galvan had in his hands a list of the exhibits presented at the hearing (Mr. Galvan provided copies to Board Members of what he would talk about). In that packet of information there was a letter from HR and notice of intent to dismiss signed by Ms. Honzay who was the acting Vice Chancellor at that time on the case against Mr. Hardy. The information talks about having the possession of marijuana on the campus and then the report by the Safety Director at Rio where the incident occurred, followed by the Tempe Police report. Mr. Galvan first wanted to add that he was not merely talking about marijuana that was discovered but drug paraphernalia (pipe) used to smoke that. Mr. Hardy, when he was first being interrogated by the Director of Rio’s Safety Office, first denied that he had any pot in his car and that he agreed that they go and search it. If you take a look at the report the report of Wednesday, May 26, 2010, at 1:55 p.m. states information had just been received who had just observed the suspect Benjamin Hardy in his vehicle smoking dope from a pipe. The supervisor reviewed this and requested that the police be called. The suspect indicated that his pipe was at home and he had not been smoking. As task report was taken but a task report was not part of what was to be discussed at the hearing. Mr. Lumm asked if it had been requested? The task report noted that the vehicle was parked in a northwest space. It was noted that the suspect grabbed a baggy and a silver item which was placed on the floor. It had been requested that these items be handed over and contents emptied. Not only did he have possession of marijuana and paraphernalia but he lied about it and again lied about when the police department came out he admitted substance was his and pipe used for smoking marijuana. Initially being deceptive when speaking to College Safety. At hearing Mr. Hardy took position that girlfriend had left this in his car. She did not appear at the hearing. First time this was heard. Inconsistent with statements he made to the Tempe Police department that it was his marijuana and pipe. Now asked for last chance. What does that mean? Dog has one free bite. We have zero tolerance because of all the problems, forgiveness to board member. Offering forgiveness to fellow board member is irrelevant with all due respect because we are speaking about board policy that is addressed to the employees that work here at the District. If we allow him to have a last chance, offering opportunity others who smoke until they get caught. Bad precedent to have. Test took place on August 26. Incident occurred in April. Four months later he would not have drug in his test results. Dealing with person who has been deceptive throughout this whole process and sending the wrong message to employees in giving him a last chance.

A. MARICOPA GOVERNANCE REVIEW

Three members of the Governing Board and the Chancellor met for a two-day retreat on August 27th and 28th in order to discuss principles of good governance, help define the proper role of the Board and individual Board members, and review the existing policies of the Maricopa Community College District as well as the current method for evaluating the Chancellor. The District first adopted the John Carver Policy Governance model in 1996 and over the years made modifications. The purpose of the retreat was to introduce to new board members and reacquaint staff with the basic principles of Policy Governance in order for the MCCCĐD to identify and implement additional good governance principles. Bill Charney, principal of Charney Associates, who has experience in board leadership and governance education consulted and facilitated the discussion. The first day focused on the following: review of Board member responses to a pre-retreat survey, a comprehensive overview of governance principles for Board effectiveness, and a review of concepts and principles that clarify the collective and individual responsibilities of the Board and the relationship between the Board and staff. The second day of the retreat included discussion on Board Outcomes, planning next steps for policy changes, discussion of Board conduct and discussion of the Chancellor Evaluation Tool and methodology for the review of executive performance.

Next Steps: In order to carry through on the momentum of ideas shared at the retreat, the immediate next steps involve outlining a plan and timeline that will include:

- Review and rewrite of the existing Outcomes (ENDS) and Executive Duties and Responsibilities (MANAGEMENT LIMITATIONS). This shall include review and affirmation of the Vision, Mission and Values utilizing the feedback gathered from the five Community Policy Forums.
- Revise Chancellor evaluation tool to reflect revised ENDS and LIMITATIONS. The Chancellor will be evaluated based on whether the ENDS have been achieved and whether the Chancellor stayed within the LIMITATIONS established by the Board to achieve the ENDS. Include as part of monitoring schedules reports such as annual indicator report, financial condition reports and 21st Century Maricopa reports.
- Per Board direction at the retreat, continue to utilize consultant services to accomplish this plan.

Discussion and Board Consent:
President Lumm explained that we want to move to enhance Maricopa Governance by having defined goals and look at measurement items within set governance goals, strategies and measurements as well as looking at end results. He stated that when the Board sets their goals, that they define what measurements they are going to look at, did they get these reports at the governing board meetings, and look at the end results and hopefully this will keep up from micromanaging and getting the information we still want. We are looking at our goals and how we define them and we need to reword some of them so that they are measurable so that we can different statistics and data on the goals and determine if the goals were met. We want to work with the consultant so that he can assist us shape these goals and in the future we can talk more about these goals. Chancellor Glaasper responded that one significant piece is that once the policies have been reviewed whether by a consultant or internal that the review of those policies will help us establish those ends, the outcomes that the Board would like to see achieved and then the Chancellor will help us establish the means by which to get there and then the determination of those means on a monthly basis and annual basis and this will serve as a baseline and matrix for the Chancellor’s evaluation and the evaluation of the Chancellor’s Executive Council. Mrs. Pearson commented that she feels this could be done in-house as there are many experts in this area, particularly Teresa Toney and Mr. Combs. This is one of the areas we are already paying for. Dr. Glasper commented that we have skilled personnel to review our own policies; however we are trying to make them clearer. This is making this a number one priority in relationship to other things we have to do. At the retreat we had a discussion that Mr. Charney could do work over five-day period and then return this to us and we could put it into an appropriate format necessary then develop the matrix and move it ahead to the Board. Mrs. Pearson asked Mr. Combs how many days it would require him to do this? Mr. Combs responded that his in-box was very critical and he would have to defer other projects to do this if that is what the Board expects. Mr. Combs indicated that consultant brought objectivity and was very capable. The presentation that he made was very impressive and his services were fairly low cost and he could quickly make expert editing to make them more effective. Mr. Lumm commented that we could save money by bringing Mr. Charney to do this and we could save staff a lot of time and money and Mr. Charney has done this many times. Agreed with Mrs. Pearson that we should do more things in-house and supports that concept. The Chancellor asked that the Board go one step further since time is running out. He stated that an action plan was given to Board, along with a series of questions. The Chancellor has indicated that the Board was offering it approval to work with Mr. Charney and wanted to if this was case because his availability is short and he is not available to do this until November which pushes us to complete the matrix in December. This then meant that his evaluation cycle would change from having twelve months to nine months and now it would be six months and if we delayed any further, it would be even less. It was Mrs. Pearson’s opinion that this should be assigned to Lee Combs to do before next meeting.

Consensus of the Board: Board Member Jerry Walker moved to contract with Bill Charney. Board Member Debra Pearson suggested having Teresa Toney and Lee Combs re-do policies. Board Members Dr. Don Campbell and Randolph Lumm moved to go forward with consultant.

FURTHER COMMENT FROM BOARD PRESIDENT LUMM:

Mr. Lumm requested asked the Vice Chancellor of Information Technology George Kahkedjian that because of the additional item on the agenda pertaining to SIS that he survey the staff to see who can work on SIS to bring the IT Division current and that we can discontinue going out for contracts.
